

Thelma Eloise Smith

October 9, 1932 - September 8, 2010

THELMA ELOISE SMITH, the second of seven children, was born to the late Matthew L. and Irma B. Smith on October 9, 1932 in Towson, Maryland. She departed this life suddenly on September 8, 2010.

She was educated in the Baltimore County Public School System and graduated from Carver High School in Towson in 1951. Her dream was to become a nurse, but due to health reasons she was unable to accomplish that goal. She later moved to Hackensack, New Jersey where she was employed as a domestic worker until she returned to Baltimore.

She accepted Christ at an early age. Thelma and her family attended Mt. Calvary A.M.E. Church, which was right next door to them on Eudowood Lane. She would often attend Little Ark Missionary Baptist Church.

Thelma, affectionately known as "Thel," was an avid sports fan. She was a loving and kindhearted woman with a great sense of humor.

She was a devoted sister, aunt, great-aunt and friend. Although she did not have children of her own, she was indeed a mother to many, especially her great-niece Charmaine Watts and great-nephew Eric Dante Gasque. They held a special place in her heart. She was always taking care of her family, even when she was not well herself. She will be truly missed.

Thelma leaves to cherish her memory: three brothers, Matthew B., Ronald and Wayne Smith; two sisters, Dora Scott and Gale Logan (her sister Shirley preceded her in life); two sisters-in-law, Cornelia (Connie) smith and Vanessa smith; brother-in-law, Donald E. Logan, Sr.; uncle, Wallace Gray; and a host of nephew, nieces, great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins and friends.

“ Please accept my sympathy for the loss of your loved one. Despite your grief, you can find comfort in the Christian hope of the resurrection. Jesus promises at John 5:28, 29: 'Do not marvel at this but the hour is coming in which all those in the Memorial tombs will hear my voice and come out. May this promise keep you comforted during this time.
