

Theodore Cole

March 30, 1921 - August 10, 2002

Theodore Cole, Jr., son of the late Theodore and Emma Cole, was born on March 30, 1921 and departed this life on August 10, 2002 after residing in the Millennium Nursing Facility for several years. He attended the Baltimore City Public Schools. Theodore liked to spend time with family and friends. He had a special fondness for his twin sister, Helen Bantam, and was very protective of her. Theodore's nickname was "Cash" because he absolutely enjoyed watching boxing matches of the renown Cassius Clay (Mohammed Ali). Another favorite pastime was watching wrestling matches and western movies. Theodore was and extremely strong man during his youth. He was a laborer who overextended himself on his job of constuction work, many times laboring seven days a week. He leaves to mourn: his twin sister, Helen Bantam; two other sisters, Emma DeVillasee and Marian Moore; three brothers, Joshua, Daniel and Edward; one brother-in-law, Glenny Moore and a host of nieces and nephews. Theodore will be deeply missed.

Tribute Wall

“ Theodore Cole

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Sometimes words just are not enough to take away our grief, so we rely on God for help and strength in our belief. May He uplift you greatly, take the sorrow that you bear, than comfort you with healing in the safety of His care... May God's love comfort you at this difficult time.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ You are in Good Lord's hands Uncle Theodole. We will miss you but knowing that God is taking care of all your needs now inspires me to go on. You don't have to worry any more. Free at Last!!!!!!Free at Last!!!!!!Thank God Lord Almighty Jesus for Freedom!!!!!!We Love you Uncle Theodore and so does God!!!!!!God Bless You!!!Love, Bunny, Grannie Your Twin Sister, Frances, and Keith!!!!!!##imported-begin##Bunny Dawn L. Green-Milton##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM