“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My heart goes out to the family in your grief in losing your loved one in death. My prayers are with you. Although I didn't know him personally, I wanted to express my condolences, because I know what it feels like to lose a child so young. My son was also 29 when he died. What comforts my family is knowing that one day he will come back to life in the resurrection. This is what Christ gave his precious life for, so that we could be done with sickness and death, and live eternally in peace and happiness. At John 10:10 Jesus said this is why he came to earth, "So that they might have life and have it in abundance. One day, Jesus's father, Jehovah will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more." Then John 5:28,29 tells all, "All those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. What a joyous day that will be. May his promises sustain you and comfort you, as well as your cherished memories of happier days.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Words seem so empty, when the heart is filled with grief. Sometimes we don't understand why things happen in life to good people, such as Dominique. He was such a caring, kind, fun & loving person. I loved everything about him, but God has a plan for all of us and Dom was a part of Gods plan. That's why God took Dom's precious life. My love is gone, but the memories will live on. Even though he is not here, my love will never stop. I know one day we will be together again. I will always remind Tori of her father. Much love, until we all meet again.##imported-begin##Jamillah##imported-end##
