

Theodore Estep

February 27, 1938 - June 2, 2006

THEODORE N. ESTEP, the son of the late Noble Estep and Eva Maria Johnson, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on February 27, 1938. He departed this life on Friday, June 2, 2006 after a short illness. He was educated in Baltimore, Maryland Catholic schools. "Sonny," as he was so fondly known, joined the U.S. Air Force in 1957. In 1959 he joined a singing group called "The Kings," and in 1938 he joined "The Swallows." Sonny married Paula Clark on December 27, 1994. He worked for the Baltimore City Department of Public Works for thirty-eight years. He had many hats that he wore, from coaching football and baseball to even playing basketball with friends. He still made time for his family. He leaves to mourn: his loving wife; two sisters, Eva Randall and Patricia Brown; four daughters, Denise Johnson, Patrice Palmer, Joel Estep and Tracy Smith; three sons, Keith Johnson, Piere Estep and Berry Clark; fourteen grandchildren, four great-grandchildren; one son-in-law and a host of nieces and nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Dear family of Theodore. I am very sorry to hear of your lost. There is a time that is talked about in the bible when we will get to see our dead loved ones again. John 5:28,29##imported-begin##Ashlee Jones##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My sincere sympathy goes out to your family. May you find comfort in the resurrection hope. Jesus demonstrated the power of the resurrection at John 11:38-44. Almighty God promises to remove our enemy death at 1Cor. 15:26. With death gone forever we can look forward to better conditions.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

“ I wish to express my deepest sympathy to the family of Mr. Estep. May your family find comfort in the words at Acts 24:15. Death was not apart of God's arrangement. One day soon by means of His kingdom death will be eradicated forever.##imported-begin##K. D Smith##imported-end##
