

Theodore Fountain

March 20, 1932 - July 15, 2010

Mr. Theodore Fountain was born on March 20, 1932 in Marlboro County, South Carolina to the late Brooks Sr., and Bessie Fountain. He departed this life Thursday, July 15, 2010 at Seasons Hospice after a battle with cancer. His wife the late Alfreda and sibling Brooks preceded him in death.

Theodore was educated in the South Carolina Public School System in Chesterfield County, Theodore met Alfreda McCoy and married on April 18, 1954, in Chesterfield, South Carolina. From this union four children were born. Two sons and two daughters Calvin, Veronica, Debra, and Brian.

Theodore was also known as Ted, Teddy, Cigar, and Pipe. He was an entrepreneur and an enthusiastic worker, who held many jobs which included construction sites for Carver Technical High School in Baltimore City and the Chartley Development in Reisterstown, Maryland. But his love for auto mechanics held strong, leading him to the proprietorship of Ted's Garage.

Theodore Fountain was a spontaneous, fun-loving and giving person who loved cooking and traveling with his family and friends. He was full of life and always made everyone laugh and smile.
