

Theodore Gregory

March 19, 1940 - June 19, 2021

THEODORE ROOSEVELT GREGORY was born on March 19, 1940 in Buckingham County, Virginia. He was one of three sons born to the late Helen Gregory Foster, who passed in 2009.

He received his education in the Buckingham County Public Schools, and after high school he decided to move to the City of Baltimore with other family members. He worked on various jobs to start off, but finally landed a job at Johns Hopkins Hospital where he worked for many years until he retired.

While working there, he met the love of his life, Shirlena Eaton; and after a while, they became husband and wife in 1963. There were no children from this union but they raised nieces and nephews as if they were their very own.

Theodore was quiet and laid back but he would do whatever he could to help anyone. If you were to talk to him on the phone, at the end of the conversation, you would never hear him say good-bye, he would always say, "Got cha". On Father's Day, June 20, 2021, God called Theodore home so he could rest from his labor.

He leaves to cherish his memory: two brothers, Vernon Gregory of Baltimore, Maryland and Harvey Gregory of New Haven, Connecticut; two brothers-in-law, William Lloyd Eaton and Ronald Eaton Sr. both of Baltimore, Maryland; one aunt, Edna Williams of Baltimore; one uncle, Stephen Gregory Sr. of Baltimore; nieces, nephews, cousins and lots of people who loved him
