

Theodore McMillon

January 4, 1961 - March 30, 2015

Theodore McMillan was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to the late Alfonso McMillion and Lillian McMillon on January 4, 1961. After a brief illness, “Theo” affectionately known by loved ones, entered into eternal rest on March 30, 2015. Theodore was a jewel. The youngest of nine siblings, he attended Amelia Street and later graduated from Virginia Randolph School for Special Needs.

Known as the “DJ” for family gatherings, Theodore’s smile and laughter would light up the room. He loved being around people. Prior to his illness Theodore worked at the Dairy Bar.

Accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior, Theodore became a member of Mount Vernon Baptist Church. Theodore will be greatly missed by all, but his life will live on through the ones he cherished. He leaves his love with his loving mother, Lillian McMillon, five beloved sisters, Diane Fowlkes(Frank),Dorothy Bank(Jack),Shirley, Carolyn and Sandy McMillan, three loving brothers, John Harrell(Judith),Alphonzo and Charlie McMillan, his special friend Diane Troup, a devoted friend David L. Jackson and a host of aunts,uncles,nieces,nephews and cousins.

“ I like to express my sincere condolences in the lost of your dear love one. Jehovah put man on earth to live forever in paradise. Even though that purpose was interrupted by sin, it will "prove to be" according to Isaiah 55:11. Please take comfort in the resurrection hope knowing that one day Theodore McMillon will live again. 1Cor. 15: 20-22.

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathy in the loss of your loved one . How comforting to know that Almighty God has not only the power but the desire to reunite us with our loved ones by means of the resurrection hope Jesus spoke of in the Bible at John 5 : 21,28,29

Delores Allen - April 01, 2015 at 07:03 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
