

Theodore Mouzone

September 20, 1924 - January 26, 2021

THEODORE MOUZONE, son of the late John and Mamie Mouzone, was born on September 20, 1929 in Springhill, North Carolina (Halifax County). He had five brothers, Jessie, Thomas, John, Saint and Joe Berry; and four sisters, Sarah, Mary, Genevia, and Mary Alice.

Theodore came to Baltimore in 1950, and he obtained employment with Walter J. Quisma Construction Company where he worked for many years. He was very skillful in home improvement and became self employed in 1978 doing home improvement for family, friends, and neighbors.

He met and married Dorothy Mouzone, who departed this life on June 18, 2012.

Theodore accepted Christ and joined Macedonia Church of God under Bishop Perry where he remained a faithful member.

Theodore is preceded in death by his loving wife, Dorothy Mouzone and son, Michael (Ann). He leaves to cherish his memory: children, Sheila Mouzone (Robert), Melvin Singletary (Loretta), and Theresa; twelve grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, one great-great-grandchild, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ The Bailey household will truly miss Mister Theodore, quiet gentle spirit, he was uplifting in his praise, and really gloried the Lord in every way, I have fond memories down through the years of his kindness and patience as he showed such love and generosity toward his family. Rest in Peace, Rose and Larry
