“ Theodore A. Rankin

“ I met "Mr. Rankin" a few years ago on the train heading south as he was heading to Salibury, NC, and as it turned out we both had roots there, we struck up a conversation and became fast friends, we would call each other periodically to catch up, and I would meet him when he revisited Salisbury. He was a good friend, and my wife and I loved him.

When I learned that his wife had passed, I sent him a little money to help out. He worked for the treasury, later in appeciation he sent me a sheet of uncut one dollar bills, it was nicely framed and beautiful. I have it hanging on my wall. Everytime we talked he would remind me that if I fell on hard times that I could cut the sheet up and spend the money (LOL) ...I told him I would always cherish it as a gift from him. I always felt good just to be around him, I miss him.
