“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy and offer you an opportunity to experience the same source of comfort that I have experienced during times like these. This comfort is found in God's Word, the Bible. At 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 it tells us that Jehovah is, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulations." It also describes the wonderful resurrection hope that all can benefit from. Please read John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15 and contact me if you would like to discuss how you can benefit from this wonderful hope.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ To The Faison Family: I would like to express my deepest sympathy at the loss of your loved one. When death separates family members, such great loss can result in deep sorrow. Even the perfect man Jesus gave way to tears when his friend, Lazarus, died even though he knew had the power and he intended to bring him back to life. The Bible assures us at 1Cor 15:26 that the "last enemy death is to be brought to nothing" but until then, you can draw close to God for comfort and "he himself will sustain you." Psalm 55:22###imported-begin##Chandra Murphy###imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences. Even though some months have passed, we never forget our loved ones when they leave us. i would like to leave a comforting scriptual message with you. Whenever you are feeling saddness please read Rev 21:3-5 and Isaiah 25:8. One days soon God is going to erase all pain and tears, and there will be no more dying. The dead will soon come back to life again, because they will hear the voice of the Christ, and they will come out of the memorial tombs. John 5:28,29. May you find much comfort in these promises from Jehovah.###imported-begin##R Johnson###imported-end##
