

Theresa Bland

October 29, 1956 - December 2, 2024

THERESA MAE BLAND (AKA) SIS was born on October 29, 1956 in Harford County, Maryland to Mr. Freddie Lee Bland and the late Mrs. Willie Mae Bland. She departed this life on December 2, 2024 at Sinai Hospital.

Theresa attended #139 Charles Carroll of Collington Elementary School and #453 Fairmount Hill Middle/High School.

Theresa received her GNA training at the Nursing Catholic Church on Greenmount Avenue. After several security guard jobs Theresa was employed with Wesley Nursing Home for over 37 years. She enjoyed being around older adults and listening to their stories.

Theresa was the heart of her family. Never missing an opportunity to participate in family reunions, picnics, and game nights. I'm talking about the biggest cheerleader for a tight family unit. She would often remind you to enjoy life, because tomorrow isn't promise to you. Theresa never had children but took to her family kids with open arms, and the belt if needed. Theresa was a DVD collector, with over 200 tapes and she loved to play Taboo.

Theresa is preceded in death by her mother, Willie Mae Bland and sister, Felecia Owens.

Theresa leaves to cherish her memory: her father, Freddie Bland; 2 brothers, Leroy Bland ad Freddie J. Bland; 2 sisters, Gloria Walker and Gwendolyn Bell; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Hello everyone. I remember Miss Theresa as being a very kind neighbor, who would ask me if I needed some help if I was carrying things into my house. I am glad I got to conversate with her the few times that we did. She stayed to herself and loved sitting on her porch in the Spring and Summer. I would see her sometimes coming down her steps to get in a cab or walking up the street to her home. Her presence and voice will be greatly missed. Family, I am very,very sorry for your loss. My Love and Prayers. May beautiful memories of her always be with you. Her neighbor across the street Yvette Winder.
