“ Please accept my warm condolences. I just wanted to say to the family that your dear loved one is in the best place possible; the loving hands of our heavenly father, Jehovah. One day he will awaken her from sleep, because he is a loving father who wants life for his children. 1st Peter 5,7. He has promised to swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. Isaiah 25:8. Imagine a life free of sorrow, pain, and death. That"s what Jehovah through his son, Jesus Christ, has in store for obedient mankind. He has given his son all authority to ressurect the dead, according to John 5:26-29. Until that day comes may your precious memories be a source of comfort to you, and help you to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry to learn about the death of Theresa. I'm sure that this must have a difficult time for all of you. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrew 9:27 says...It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##
