

Theresa Wilhelmenia Hackett

December 17, 1923 - February 21, 2014

THERESA WILHELMENIA HACKETT, daughter of the late James Hackett and Helen Rone, was born on December 17, 1923 in Baltimore, Maryland.

She was educated in Baltimore City schools.

Wilhelmenia joined Ebenezer Baptist Church in 1936, where she was baptized by the late Rev. Edward Jordan. Her heart belonged to God. Her children and grandchildren were her happiness.

Wilhelmenia worked as a deluxe wrapper at Hutzler Brothers for eleven years. She started as a cashier and worked up to be a manager for Midget Food Store for eighteen years. Due to illness, she had to retire at the age of 49.

She is preceded in death by her son Anthony E. Hackett and her son-in-law Ernest W. Ward.

She leaves happy memories to: her daughter, Helen P. Ward; eleven grandchildren, a host of great-grandchildren; one aunt, Charlotte Robinson; a devoted niece and nephew, Alicia and Andre Dorsey; Lloyd E. Rone Jr., dedicated cousin; a host of other relatives, associates and friends.

The light of smiles shall fill again, the hearts that overflow with tears, And weary hours of woe and pain are promises of happier years. With many thanks and prayers to Barbara West, who was sent by the Lord above, an angel in disguise who devoted her time as a caregiver for my mother and our grandmother. We love you and will never be able to repay you for the good deeds and love you showed my mother and our grandmother. Thank you a million times.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ To the Family of Theresa W. Hackett,

After reading about the death of your family member I wanted to write to tell you how sorry i was to read of it. The bible tells us that the true God loves us and does not want to see us hurt. So He has set out a promise to get rid of sickness, death and pain. He tells us this at Revelation 21:4. He also promises at Isaiah 25:8 that 'God will swallow up death forever.' So we look forward to the time when we will no longer lose our loved ones in death. Titus 1:2 says 'God cannot lie'. So we know for sure this will happen. Well I do hope these scriptures have been of encouragement to you. If you have any comments or questions please e-mail me.

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family at this most difficult time. May you be comforted by the promise of the resurrection, and the end to sickness and death forever. God makes these wonderful promises to us at Isaiah 25:8 and Rev 21:3-4. May you find comfort in these wonderful promises from Jehovah God.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.
