

Theresa B. Harding

October 9, 1958 - September 23, 2012

THERESA B. HARDING, daughter of Pearl Vaughan and the late James M. Harding, Sr., was born on October 9, 1958 in Baltimore, Maryland and grew up in Jessup, Maryland. She departed this life on September 23, 2012 to go home with her Heavenly Father.

She received her education in the Anne Arundel County School System; graduating from Arundel Senior High School in 1976. In her life-time, Theresa worked several jobs to include Best Western Hotel. Employers loved her work ethic, because she would give her all. She was a firm believer that "Cleanliness is next to Godliness." At an early age, she attended Payne Memorial A.M.E. Church in Jessup, Maryland. There, she developed a love for God, His word and joyously sang on the youth choir.

Theresa had the personality to capture friends wherever she went. She had a charismatic smile that would touch you and make you smile, even when you didn't feel like it. She really loved her family and was protective. She'd call you for no other reason but to say, "I Love You," never forgetting your birthday or "Happy" whatever holiday. There was nothing she would not do for the people she loved or anyone else she could help. She loved spending time with all the children in the family, especially her grandchildren. She was very gifted in her ability o braid hair, almost as though she had magic in her hands. Every part was perfectly straight and neat.

During her long-tem relationship, she had two children with the late Thomas B. Matthews, Sr. Her son, Thomas B. Matthews, Jr. (preceded her in death) and a daughter, Tosha L. Matthews.

She leaves to mourn: her mother, Pearl Vaughan; daughter, Tosha L. Matthews; sister, Debra; brothers, James and Harold; granddaughters, Samaria, Amirah, Kaleja and Aaliyah; devoted aunt, Helen; and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, and dear friends. She also leaves to mourn: her long-term friend, Neil.

“ "If a man dies, can he live again?" asked the man Job long ago. (Job 14:14) Perhaps you to have wondered about this. How would you feel if you knew that a reunion with your loved ones was possible? The Bible makes this promise "Your dead ones will live...They will rise up." (Isaiah 26"19) Almighty God assures us that if we take in accurate knowledge of him and his son, Christ Jesus and live by bible standards, we have the hope of seeing our loved ones again in the near future where we will live on a paradise earth forever. (Psalm 37:29) I hope this has brought you a measure of comfort and I pray that you seek to know what the bible really teaches about this wonderful time.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ Theresa, you will be truly missed we grew up together, went to school together, worked together and then we ended up being family. You were always the same person full of life and fun to be around. Family even though you will miss her she is in a better place. You have our deepest sympathy, and anything you need we will be right there with you.

Love Always,
