

Theresa Gail Hodges-Anderson

April 20, 1951 - May 12, 2013

Theresa Gail Hodges-Anderson was born April 20, 1951 to the late Ruth Burrell and Charles H. Hodges, Sr. She was called home May 12, 2013 to be with her Lord and Savior.

She was educated in the Richmond Public School System and attended Maggie Walker High School. She was employed at McGuire Veterans Hospital, and worked in the Dietary Department.

Theresa met the love of her life, George A. Anderson and they were wed on April 17, 1992, and from that union they reared four children.

Theresa was a member of Mt. Olive Baptist Church in Glen Allen, Virginia. You could always find her standing up shouting "Preach". She knew and loved the Lord and her church family.

Her mission was to be the best at whatever God had in store for her. She would want to be remembered for having a heart of gold, a good wife, mother, grandmother and a woman that was kind, loving, very caring, compassionate and a supportive person who loved having fun.

Theresa wanted to do her part in the world and campaigned for President Obama on the national level as well as the local level. She enjoyed working in her garden and listening to her music. Theresa touched so many in so many ways and will be truly missed by all, however don't fret. She will always be with us deep in the recesses of our minds and in our hearts, until we too die and meet her in the after life. We will never allow the light to flicker and continue to carry her torch to eternity. Her favorite song was "His Eyes Is On The Sparrow".

She leaves to cherish precious memories, loving husband, Geroge A. Anderson; one daughter, Katrina Hodges; three sons, Larry Hodges, George P. Anderson (Tracey) and George Anderson; 15 grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; siblings, Ruth L. Hodges, Charles H. Hodges and Lloyd Hodges (Debra); aunt, Martha Hunt, sisters-in-law, Mary Ann Burley (Eddie), Constella Goode (Norman) and Geneve Robinson; brother-in-law, James Anderson, devoted friend Shirley Zimmerman and a host of other relatives and friends.

Our hearts are sad, but we rejoice in knowing that the Lord has called you and you answered his voice. Rest now beloved, your work here is done.

“ I am sorry for your loss. The bible promises that death will be no more (Revelation 21:3,4). It also holds out the hope of a resurrection for all those in God's memory (John 5:28,29). Until then may we the living use our lives to make a good name with God (Ecclesiastes 7:1).

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ Theresa,
I will cherish our long talks about life and relationships. We've laughed through tears on many occasions. You were a great mom, grandmother, and for me a supportive mother-in-law. I wish our paths would have stayed connected but I know that you are rejoicing in heaven!!! Until we meet again...

“ Please accept my condolences to the family during this difficult time. It is never easy to lose a loved one in death. Please find comfort and hope in God's word at Revelation 21:3, 4.
