

Theresa I. Oliver

March 4, 1983 - October 1, 2001

On October 1, 2001, at approximately 1:45 p.m. the Lord gently took Theresa Irene Oliver by the hand and carried home to be with him in glory. Theresa was born on March 4, 1983 to Victoria and Robert Oliver. "Ree-Ree," as she was fondly nicknamed, always had a smile. She had an outgoing personality, who was friendly to those she came in contact with. She was full of life, as one of her favorite pastimes was conversing on the telephone. Theresa attended Lake Clifton High School and Harbor City High School in Baltimore, MD. Her favorite subjects were Art and Music. She was into fashion, always keeping up the latest styles. She loved to listen to music and enjoyed watching video. Often times, while riding in the car with her sister, she would sing along with the hit songs on the radio. This past year, Theresa relocated to Petersburg, VA to live with her father. It was during this time that she met Derek. Theresa and Derek fell in love and were in the process of planning a future together. They had plans to marry. Theresa made numerous friends and will be sincerely missed. She was a joy to everyone she met. We know that now she is in a better place, one where she will rest in peace. Left to cherish her memory: a devoted mother, Victoria; a loving father, Robert; one heartbroken sister, Tina; one caring brother, Cornelius; a fiancée, Derek; one grandmother, one brother-in-law, Dearic; twelve aunts; ten uncles; one precious niece, Special; numerous cousins; and a host of friends.
