

Theresa Jackson

August 25, 1959 - February 17, 2010

THERESA M. JACKSON, daughter of the late Cleveland Jackson and the late Mary Jackson, was born on August 25, 1959 in Baltimore, Maryland. Our precious sister departed this life on February 17, 2010, to be with her Heavenly Father. Mary, as she was affectionately called, received her education from Baltimore City Public Schools. She was a devoted member of Israel Baptist Church. She worked in the IBS (Israel Book Store) for six months and was in training to serve on the financial board. Theresa was also a family member of Johns Hopkins Hospital where she faithfully served for ten years. Her dedicated service reflected the love and care she performed, not only to her assignment, but to everyone she worked with and encountered. Theresa's passion was her genuine love for all children. Although she had none of her own, she was gifted to assume the role of a mother without question, anytime or anywhere. She loved her pets Gizmo and Fluff Fluff, as if they were her children. She enjoyed spending time with her family, shopping and making people laugh. Theresa is preceded in death by her mother Mary Jackson, her eldest sister Joyce Gainey and eldest brother Carl Morris. She leaves to mourn: Poppa Cleveland Jackson; grandmother, Eppi Morris; four brothers, Thomas Jackson, Nathaniel Jackson, Donald Jackson, and Melvin Jackson; three sisters-in-law Nina Jackson, Gail Jackson and Balinda Jackson; four aunts Betty Coleman, Mammie Joyce, Walter and Clara Nun, Maijo Vincent; three uncles, Robert Jackson, Sam Morris and Charles Morris; twenty nieces, twenty-five nephews; a devoted friend and ex-husband,

Rudy Prater; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Theresa Jackson

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Theresa Jackson. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (Johns 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. Brown##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I was sadden to hear about your lost. We all have lost touch over the years. Feel free to contact me via e-mail.##imported-begin##Gregory Handy##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the Family: Theresa was a barrel of fun. She had a beautiful spirit. I'll miss her at our family gatherings! I leave a poem of encouragement for you Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free, I'm following the path God laid for me. I took his hand when I heard his call, I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day, To laugh, to love, to work, to play. Tasks left undone must stay that way, I've found that peace at the end of the day. If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Ah, yes, these things too I will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My Life's been full, I savoured much, Good friends, good times, a loved one' touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now, He set me free.##imported-begin##Mitzi##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My deepest sympathies to all Theresa's family and friends. She was a wonderful colleague and friend to us in the Traylor Building at Hopkins.##imported-begin##Paul Fuchs##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I am so very sorry to hear of the recent passing of your dear loved one. Losing a loved one is so traumatic. We feel so powerless knowing that nothing we can say or do will bring them back, and most of all we miss them so very much. Although I didn't know her, I'm sure she was a beautiful person, and Jehovah God knows more than anyone the deep pain you are going through. He loves us so much so that he sent his only-begotten Son, in order that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life. Yes, dear ones, that ransom price that Jesus paid to lead us to everlasting life is the greatest expression of love that Jehovah God and Jesus could have done for us. That ransom will pay back what Adam lost for all of us, that is eternal, perfect, life. He promises us at 1st Cor 15:22: "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive." One day you have the wonderful hope of seeing Theresa alive again. May God's promises bring you much comfort, and may your precious memories of happy day spent with Theresa bring joyful thoughts to your hearts until the glorious day of salvation arrives.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I was very saddened to hear of Theresa's death. She was a dear person with a heart of gold. She will be sorely missed. We will always remember her beautiful laughter.##imported-begin##Joyce Bankert##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I was grieved to hear of Theresa's death. She was a model for others to follow in her commitment to her job and the people she ministered to at Johns Hopkins. She was a bright spot in my day, a sweet spirit. I counted her as a friend. Phyllis Taylor, Dept. Biomedical EGINEERING, Fifth Floor Traylor Building###imported-begin###Phyllis Taylor###imported-end###

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Theresa always brought a bright sunshine smile to work everyday. She worked for Johns Hopkins University and was assigned too Reed Hall and the Cooley center. Theresa was well like by her co-workers and the Reed Hall and Cooley staff and members. "we Love You Theresa"###imported-begin###Charles mcknight###imported-end###

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Theresa was a dear cousin to me. I remember all the times she would come to South Carolina and we would have conversations about life. She always encouraged me and instilled in me to keep psuhing for greater things. She was a sweet person with a heart of gold and full of love. She would do anything for anyone and anytime. I pray that God will strengthen her father my uncle as we prepare to say goodbye and wait to join her in heaven. Theresa I know you are in heaven laughing about last August at the beach for the family reunion. I am glad you were so happy. Love you so much Resa###imported-begin###Monique Geddis###imported-end###

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM