“ Dear Family, I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your loved on. Death hurts however we are not without hope. The Bible gives us all hope. According to Acts 24:15 there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. John 5:28-29 speaks of a resurrection as well. I do pray that you all take comforting in knowing that God has promised a world without pain. Read Revelation 21:3-4. May the comfort from the scriptures ease your pain.##imported-begin##T Curtis##imported-end##

“ We offer our heartfelt sympathy to the family of Theresa Louise. It is times like these that we find comfort in God's word the Bible. Such scriptures as Isaiah chap. 33 vs. 24 which says, "And no resident will say: "I am sick."... and also John chap. 5 vs. 28 which says, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out... Jehovah has many promises for obedient mankind and as we all know He does not lie.##imported-begin##Carl & Mae Hodge##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my condolences to the family and friends of Theresa Louise Ziegler. Losing a loved one is truly difficult. It is a painful time that Jehovah God promises will one day soon no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ I would like to extend my fellow feeling to you all, the family and friends. Lossing a dear love hurts after almost 82 years. One thing is for sure your heavenly father knows how you all feeling and cares for all, 1 Peter 5:7. In the near future dying is something that will be done away, Isa.25:8. I have loss dear love ones too and look forward to an end of death, Rev.21:3-5. May all the cherish times spent with Ms. Theresa help on the journey of life ahead for you all.##imported-begin##lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ I’m truly sorry for your loss. I’d like to offer you some words of encouragement from the Scriptures, which greatly helped me in my time of need. Some people may say that it was God’s will for their loved one to be taken away. James 1:13 says, “When under trial, let no one say: ‘I am being tried by God.’ For with evil things, God cannot be tried nor does he himself try anyone.” This tells us that God is not the cause of our suffering regarding the loss of someone we love. The Scriptures also tell us that God’s original purpose was for humans to live forever in perfect health. God also ensures us through the Bible that he intends to realize that purpose. A wonderful change must occur first. John 5:28, 29 says, “Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.” There will be a resurrection of our dead loved ones right here on earth! We can look forward to a time when we can embrace them once again with all of their youthful vigor and health. After the resurrection, God plans to restore the earth to a paradise, cleansing it from all crime, suffering and pain. Revelation 21:4 says: “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” There is so much hope and encouragement in the Bible. I look forward to the time when death will no longer be a source of distress. This can offer some comfort in times of grief. I hope that this information helped you. Please send my condolences to the family.##imported-begin##T. Thompson##imported-end##
