

Theresa Mae King

November 29, 1963 - December 15, 2009

THERESA MAE KING, daughter of the late Frances and Ross King, was born on November 29, 1963 in Baltimore City. She departed this life unexpectedly on December 15, 2009. Theresa was educated in Baltimore City. Theresa was a kind-hearted woman who took joy in helping others. Her favorite saying was, "Are you ok" or "Do you need something" In her leisure time she enjoyed watching old movies, playing cards, cooking and looking good. Her sister often teased her lateness when it came to getting dressed. God knows she will be missed by family and friends. She leaves to mourn: two brothers, Ross King Jr. and Rodney King; four sisters, Eileen Martin, Roslyn Batty, Rosemary King and the late Rose King; two brothers-in-law, Grant Batty, the late Barry Martin; a host of aunts and uncles; nephews, Barry, Durrell, DJ, Scott, Barry a.k.a. Bam, Ross, Maurice; nieces, Beronica, Breonna, Tamira, Nijha, Jaci, Nyeema; and devoted friends, DJ, Darrell, Kenneth Owens, Kelton Wheeler, Sean Wheeler; and a special friend, Braxton Wheeler.

“ Losing a loved one in death is truly difficult. This is a sorrow that Jehovah God promises will one day be no more (Revelation 21:3,4). As you await the fulfillment of this promise may you find comfort from the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ I would like to express my condolences to the King family. When death separates us from a loved one deep sorrow can result, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 encourages us with the resurrection hope by stating: "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May your cherished memories and God's Word of Truth comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##
