

THERESA SMITH

July 15, 1969 - December 9, 2019

THERESA ANTOINETTE SMITH, affectionately known as "Reese," was born on July 15, 1969 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Jacqueline Smith-Cephas and John Edmonds. She was raised in a loving home by her mother and devoted "Daddy" Alston Gunther until their passing. Theresa was released from this life on December 9, 2019 at the youthful age of 50.

Theresa received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She attended Mergenthaler High School and received her high school diploma from Harbor City in 1987.

Theresa had several occupations during her life. She worked as a lead cook at the Bay Lady and Lady Baltimore. She went on to work with the elderly at Stella Moris Nursing Home that led to her earning a certification for Geriatric Nursing Assistant. She also enjoyed her tenure as a teller at Merchantile Bank.

After working various jobs and gaining experience in many areas. Theresa embarked on a new journey and focused on her education. She was enrolled at Community College of Baltimore County-Catonsville pursuing an associates degree in Criminal Justice until her untimely passing.

Those who knew Theresa couldn't help but to love her. Theresa was kind and gentle. She was eager to help anyone in need. She opened her home to many when they needed a place to stay. Theresa enjoyed being with family. She enjoyed dining out, movie night, paint nights, birthday celebrations, holiday gatherings and hanging with her friends. During her spare-time, she loved to color adult coloring books, listen to music, and spending time with her nieces and nephews. But above all, being a devoted mother, sister, aunt, and life companion brought her the greatest joy.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Jacqueline Smith-Cephas. She leaves to cherish her memory: two devoted sons, Dominick Cuffey and Samar Brown; life companion, Tarrío Brown; two siblings, Maria Easter-Ricks, James Easter (Laquasha Easter-sister in law); devoted nieces and nephews, Shakia Johnson (James Johnson), Sierra Smith, Kayla Easter, Ashley Easter, Kevin Easter, Xander Ricks; and a host of other relatives and friends.
