

Theresa V. Paige

January 10, 1936 - December 9, 2002

Theresa Veronica Paige, daughter of the late Eugenia Buchanan and Ernest Taylor was born on January 10, 1936 in Baltimore, Maryland and was born as a child of God on February 9, 1936. At an early age she made her holy sacraments at St. Peter Claver Catholic Church. She received her education at St. Peter Claver and Baltimore City Public Schools. She was a devoted housewife who enjoyed sewing, painting and decorating her home. Family and friends as "Susie" also knew her. Theresa made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone that knew her. On February 4, 1956 she was married to William Glenn Paige Jr. and from this union she had four children. She leave to mourn: her husband William Glenn, one son, William David; three daughters, Glenda Paige-Jackson; Lesia Bruton, Tracey Paige; three grandsons, Glenn, Darius, Trevor; four granddaughters, Tylia, Blair, Morgan and Danisha; two greatgrands, D'NA, and Kerrson, one uncle, Edward Buchanan, son-in-law, Samuel Bruton; brother-in-law, Irvin Chaney; niece, Michelle Chaney; nephew, Anthony Chaney; a devoted friend, Charlene Webb and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Glenda, just looking at your mother's picture, you are truly a reflection of her beauty. You and your mother have had so many good times, so dwell on those memories and not the sad times, although there will be many sad days. Always remember that God has prepared a better place for all of us and your mother has gone ahead of you and will be there when you arrive. Just know that I am always there for you. God Bless You and Your Family##imported-begin##Donna L. Monk##imported-end##

“ It's been 4 years since my mother passed. I miss her as much today as I did when she left. I think about every time something good happens or even bad within the family. When I was going through my chemo/breast cancer treatment I missed her being there to support me. I'm just glad I had her in my life. As time goes on it won't hurt as bad as it does today...she'll always be with you!###imported-begin###Janice M. Dixon###imported-end###
