

Therman L. Cox

May 1, 1951 - January 11, 2022

Therman L. Cox was born on May 1, 1951 to the late Clifton L. Cox, Sr. and Lucille Edges. He departed this life on Tuesday, January 11, 2022 in Baltimore, Maryland.

Therman received his education from Dunbar High School and attended artistic training at Morgan State University and musical training from Johns Hopkins Peabody Institute. He also loved to share his artistic abilities as a trained Florist, competing in florist conventions. He performed at The Regal Theater and was a professional musician by the age of 15. He played the Violin, Trombone, French Horn, and the Piano. He enjoyed life and brought laughter and good times to all he came in contact with.

Therman was preceded in death by his son Antonio Cox of Kinston, North Carolina and one brother, Clifton Cox, Jr. of Baltimore, Maryland.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his three daughters, Stacey McNeil (Luncie) of Fuquay-Varina, North Carolina, Sabrina Barrett of Baltimore, Maryland, Amber Bagley of Westchester, New York; four granddaughters, Shanae, Renee, Courtney and Zipporah; three great-granddaughters, Kamryn, Logan and Hayden; three sisters, Theresa, Earline and Stephanie; three brothers, Norman Cox (Wanda) of Baltimore, Maryland, Ronald "Ronnie" Cox of Baltimore, Maryland and Donnie Cox: Aunt Jean Scott: sister-in-law, Bertha Cox: and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

“ I remember Mr. Cox when I first started working in the building he lived in. He was the first person to have a conversation with me during my overnight shift. He told me about his amazing life and his daughters. He showed me his violins and his birds. Thank you Mr. Cox for being such an amazing person and an amazing friend.
