“ So sad that I have been trying to reach out and find my family. And for me to go online and see that my father passed away and my name was not mentioned anywhere. It just breaks my heart. I really miss you too and I was young didn't know much about you only what I was told. Wish I could meet my family some day and they can get to know my kids as well. Love You daddy!!!

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I am sorry for the family's loss. I hope that you can find comfort in the Holy Scriptures. John 5:28,29 says there will be a time when "all those in their memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". So for now, we must prove to be "blameless and upright, fearing God and turning aside from bad" (Job 1:1) and wait on Jehovah God to fulfill his wonderful promise.##imported-begin##Kendra A.##imported-end##

“ To the Family: Please accept my condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. Job chapter 14, verse 14 asks if a person dies "can he live again?" Verse 15 answers: "You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning." So, God will "call" or bring our dead loved ones back to life. And notice how God has a "yearning", a very strong longing to bring our dead loved ones back to life. And this he promises to do. May this message give you added strength until that time comes.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To Friends & Family of Mr. Young. I wish to send my condolences to your family on your loss. The enemy death is not partial to anyone and brings a "sting" that cannot be compared to any other pain. I know we all share one wish and that is that there would be no more sickness and death. We are ALL promised at Revelation 21:3,4 that, "He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry or pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." I hope you can find comfort in this hope and look toward this hope.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##
