

Thomas Blannon

August 4, 1963 - March 1, 2002

Thomas Howard Blannon, son of Robert Blannon Sr. and Kattie Blannon, was born on August 4, 1963 and was called home on March 1, 2002. Thomas attended Baltimore City Public Schools and later went to Job Corps to become maintenance technician. Thomas, through his life, always showed a loving, uplifting personality. As a little girl (his niece), when I would get in trouble, he would come in the house singing my favorite songs all wrong just to put a smile on my face. That is just one example of how his personality affected his family and friends. He might not have had the easiest life, but he made sure the time he had was lived to the fullest. He leaves behind in mourning: his loving mother, Katie Blannon and father, Robert Blannon Sr.; three brothers, Robert Blannon Jr., James Blannon and Walter Blannon; four sisters, Barbara McClamy, Patricia Blannon, Yvonne Blannon and Edith McRae, who are all living in Baltimore, Md.; two brothers-in-law, Charles McClamy and Willie McRae; his loving friend, Lavinia; three uncles, Herbert Vereen of Baltimore, Md., Thomas Whynn of TX. And Howard Whynn of Pa.; four aunts, Sylvia Moore, Helesteen Allen and Mary Vereen all of Baltimore, Md. And Christine Whynn of Buffalo, N.Y.; great-aunt and uncle, Lorine and John Livingston of Charlotte, N.C.; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends. Last, but not least Uncle Tom, from your niece, Siera, You will always have a special place in my heart.
