“ I send my sympathy to the family of Thomas Tabron. I offer this scriptural encouragement. Rev21:4,5:"God will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away'. And the One seated on the throne said: 'Look! I am making all things new' Also, he says: 'Write, because these words are faithful and true'".##imported-begin##nunnally##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. God’s original purpose was not for us to ever die. The thought of death is heartwrenching to us and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to death. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Just imagine our loved one coming back to life in the most beautiful earthly paradise you could ever imagine! Wouldn’t it be wonderful to greet them, tears of joy running down your faces and knowing that you will never lose them in death again. Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at (Rev. 21: 3-5) of a new earth where there will be no more death. These promises have brought comfort to millions. I wish the same for you.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Dear family I know this is a sorrowful time for you all. You have my heartfelt sympathy. Know that many people care about what you are going through, but our heavenly father cares the most. 1st Peter 5,7 tells us to throw all your anxiety upon him, because he cares for you." One day he promises to end all sickness and death, and bring about a world free of sorrow and pain. Even the memory of this sorrowful life will be forgotten, because God promises at Isaiah 65,17, "For here I am creating new heavens and a new earth, and the former things will not be called to mind, neither will they come up into the heart." Will the dead live again? John 5:25 says, "The hour is coming, and it is now, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who have given heed will live." So one day our dead ones will live again. May the thought of one day being reunited with Thomas bring you comfort, and a wonderful hope to cling to, as you remember the good times you shared with him.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family of Thomas C. Tabron I just read about the recent death of your love one. I am deeply concerned about the sorrow and distress that you must be experiencing. I have some GOOD NEWS to share with you regarding loss. The Bible promises us that we will have the opportunity to see our dear love ones again. At John 5:28, 29 Jesus Christ assures us that “everyone in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out”. The promise of a resurrection is held out to all those falling asleep in death (Acts 24:15). Jehovah God has promised obedient mankind at Revelation 21:1-4 that very soon pain, sickness and yes even death will be no more, because according to 1John 4:8 “God is love”. I sincerely hope these words brought your family comfort.##imported-begin##Louise Hibbler##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy for your loss. Even though this is a sad time, we can find comfort in Jesus' promise at John 11:25: Jesus said to her: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that excercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; yes the Christian promise of the resurrection can be a wonderful comfort during this sad time.###imported-begin###*A.
