

Thomas Darby

January 4, 1954 - November 4, 2002

Thomas Darby, Jr., the beloved son of Alma Darby and the late Thomas Darby, was born on January 4, 1954 in Salters, South Carolina. On Monday, November 4, 2002, God in His infinite wisdom sent His angel of mercy to gently call Junior home after a lengthy battle with cancer. "Jr.," as family and friends affectionately knew him, attended the Baltimore City Public School System. Junior was attending the Baltimore City Community College until his illness prevented him from attending. Junior was a loving person who always went out of his way to help family and friends. He loved to plan family gatherings and celebrations. His pleasant personality and sense of humor were the true essence of his being. Junior was a true friend and devoted man. Junior made numerous friends wherever he went and everyone who knew him will sincerely miss him. He leaves to cherish his memory; a devoted mother, Alma F. Darby; one brother, Tyrone Darby; two sisters, Barbara Ann Darby and Ardena N. Githara all of Baltimore, Md.; seven aunts, Ms. Alice Frazier and Ms. Ella Frazier of New Haven, Conn., Mrs. Flossie Fulton of Florida, Mrs. Myoner Holmes of Salters, South Carolina; Mrs. Beverly Woolford, Ms. Bernice Sparrow and one great-aunt, Mrs. Rovena Middleton all of Baltimore, Md.; five uncles, Mr. John Clifton McLeod, Mr. Gilbert Owens McLeod and Mr. John Woolford of Baltimore, Md., Mr. Easton Frazier and Mr. Leroy Holmes, both of South Carolina; seven nephews, four nieces, three great-nephews, three great-nieces and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
