

Thomas Hogan

October 22, 1921 - July 9, 2002

Thomas Hogan, Jr., son of the late Constance (Sinkfield) and Thomas Hogan Sr. was born October 22, 1921 in Escambia County, Pensacola, Florida. He departed this life July 9, 2002 after a lengthy illness. "Pop" as he was affectionately known, received his education in Pensacola, Florida. He later joined the U.S. Army, seeing action overseas in World War II. He received an honorable discharge and a letter of commendation from the President Thurman. Pop had a wry sense of humor. After the events of 9-11, he stated they couldn't get him to ride in an airplane, even if they were running it on the ground. Although he resided in Baltimore for less than a year, he had numerous friends. He was loved and will be missed by all. He was preceded in death: his wives, Eddie May Jackson, Mary Hogan, and Gladys Hogan; one daughter, Portia, and two brothers, Eugene and Addison He leaves to mourn: three daughters, Patricia, Vickie and Peggy; four stepdaughters, Brenda, Gladys, Wilma and Joanne; three sisters, Eva Polnitz, Mary Hardy and Margaret Hogan; two nephews, Willie Joe and Terry Polnitz; nine grandchildren, six great grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends.
