

Thomas Carl Jackson Jr.

June 11, 1958 - May 12, 2021

On Wednesday, May 12, 2021 at 10:44am the Lord stretched out his Hands and lifted his spirit into heaven.

Thomas (Tommy) Carl Jackson, Jr. was born on Wednesday, June 11, 1958 in Richmond, Virginia to the Late Thomas Carl Jackson, Sr. and Madeline (Douglas) Jackson.

He was educated in the Richmond City Public Schools Systems, where he made many lifelong friends. Thomas was fondly known as “Tommy” by his family and friends in Richmond, “Tom” by his aunts Sarah and Corrine and Old School by his Co-Workers in Maryland.

Thomas loved the Lord, life, family, friends and people! He gave his life to Christ at an early age while attending church with his family at Shiloh Baptist Church, Richmond, VA where he sang in Young Adult, Male Choirs.

Thomas married his childhood sweetheart Angie on April 4, 2011. She was a loyal and devoted wife who took great care of him during his illness, until the Lord saw fit to call him to his heavenly home. They loved worshipping together at Community Baptist Church where he sung in the Hurte Ensemble and the Mass Choir.

Most near and dear to his heart were his children Terrell & LaNisha and the apple of his eye, his granddaughter Sa'Ryah.

Thomas worked at several different companies as a painter, welder and flagger. His last place of employment was Highland Enterprise where he remained until his illness forced him to retire.

He was a faithful, loyal member of Shiloh Baptist Church since childhood. When he moved to Maryland in 2011, he joined the Community Baptist Church, Jessup, MD. He came from a singing family and was part of the music ministry at both churches. I don't think he really knew how good a singer he was, but I could listen to him for hours.

Tommy hobbies included listening to gospel music and jazz, watching movies and his Dallas Cowboys. However, the most important thing in his life was taking care of Seniors. He would call them regular to see how they were doing, and to see if they needed anything. He ran errands, and would take them anywhere they needed to go. Tommy would also just sit and enjoying the conversations.

Preceded him in death were his parents, Thomas Carl Jackson Sr., and Madeline Gee. He leaves to cherish memories, his devoted wife Angela Coppedge-Jackson, his son Terrell Jackson, daughter LaNisha Washington and his granddaughter Sa'Ryah Jackson. His brothers Anthony Jackson, Atlanta, Ga., William Gee, Bronx, NY and Hubert Gee, Atlanta Ga., three aunts Sarah Wright, Corrine Beard and Viola White, two uncles James Jackson and Irvin Mayo, from his blended family Delbert Bias & Loreal Hunter, three sister-in-laws, Margretta (Charles) Patterson, Charmaine Mills & Pauletta (Larry) James and one brother-in-law Delbert X Coppedge, and a host of family and friends, several devoted, just to name a few, Corky Brown, Bernard Sanders, Timothy Dumas, Sammy Gillard, Minister Cheryl English, &

Deacon Jimmy Rogers.

“ Angie, I know Tom was your best friend, but he was my bestest friend. Tom was so loving and very giving, and he was patient, too. I say he was my bestest friend because no matter what I asked of him, he would never mumble or complain. I asked Tom to help me paint the outside of my house; he said Aunt Sake I'll be there on Saturday. And Tom would paint the top and I'd paint the bottom. I tried to give him pay him, but he wouldn't accept it. All he wanted were sweet potatoes (candied yam, or sweet potato pie) and greens. He said that was payment enough. I love you so very much, my nephew, I miss you, my bestest friend, Tom.

Angie, thank you for taking such good care of him. Thank you so very much. And take care of yourself.

God bless and you may He give you comfort during your time of grief.

*Love you always,
Aunt Sake (Sarah Wright)*

“ Angie,

Thomas (my buddy) left a wonderful legacy behind. He was larger than life and he lived it to the fullest. Now that he has gone may all the beautiful memories be a blessing to you.

May your love for Thomas guide you through this difficult time.

My condolences, love and prayers

“ Angie & family,
I'm thinking of you as I have throughout these last 2 and a half years of you being so strong with every circumstance that came upon you.
Continue to be strong throughout this time of bereavement. God has you and is with you every step of the way.

May God bless and comfort you and the family and surround all of you with His presence.

My condolences, love and prayers,

“ Angie and family, I know words of condolences cannot take the sorrow, pain nor hurt you feel. Just remember the wonderful times you all experienced with him, the laughter, joy, happiness and sometimes sadness. But most of all, his joy of singing, especially for tge Lord. He sag for ou Savior here on earth, now he has joined God's Heavenly Choir. Praise God, Praise God.

With loving memory,
Gail Wright (Bobby Wright 's wife) and Family
