“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ It is such a sorrowful thing to lose our loved ones in death. We want them here with us forever, and that's a natural desire that God will soon fulfill. Long ago when sin and death was introduced into the world, Jehovah took steps through his son Jesus to bring an end to this enemy death. 1st Cor. 15:26 tells us, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Also Daniel 12:2 tells us, "There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." So please hold these promises of God close in your hearts, because soon they will become a reality.##imported-begin##R
