Miss Me, But Let Me Go When I've come to the end of the road and the sun has set For me, I want no rites in a gloom filled room why cry for A soul set free? Miss me a little, but not too long and not With your head bowed low, Remember the love that we shared Miss me, but let me go. For this is a journey we all must take And each must go alone, It's all a part of the Master's plan a step On the road to home... When you lonely and sick a heart go to The friends we know and bury your sorrow in doing good deeds, MISS ME, BUT LET ME GO!!!!!!!!!!!! From Tiny with Love

“ Although it's hard to understand just why these things must be, still may you find some comfort in these words of sympathy. And in the thought that memories of the things he did and said, will keep your love one close to you through all the days ahead.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
