

Thomas Lee Morgan

November 11, 1928 - May 3, 2009

THOMAS LEE MORGAN, beloved son of the late Branch Sr. and Marie (Mariah)Morgan, was born on November 11, 1928 in Dinwiddie County, Virginia. He departed this life suddenly on Sunday, May 3, 2009 at Johns Hopkins Hospital. Thomas was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools. He accepted Christ at an early age. His favorite songs were "His Eye Is On The Sparrow," "How Great Thou Art," "Amazing Grace" and "The 23rd Psalm" by Jeff Majors. He worked many years for Bethlehem Steel, Lombard Food Company and later became an entrepreneur of antiques and collectables (your trash was his treasure). Thomas welcomed his first born, a son Thomas Lee Jordan (who preceded him in death) and soon to follow a beautiful daughter Mary Frances Jordan. Thomas met the late Evelyn Smith, they were united in marriage in 1949. Three children were born during their union. Theresa, Janthony and Ernest Lee Morgan. He later welcomed his daughters Virginia (Jenny) and LaCheryl. Thomas was known as Dad to his children, Pop to his grandchildren, Buck to his siblings and Uncle Buck to his nieces and nephews and to those who graced North Avenue and Castle Street. Buck enjoyed family and when he and his siblings along with their children would gather, you know you were in store for food, fun and a "talent show." Buck was a quiet and simple man who didn't need much to make him happy. The things that made him happy were spending time with Cookie, hanging out with his life-long friends "Brown" and Clyde. If he needed to chill out that meant a vacation to the home of his grandson Courtaney, along with his wife and kids. They would enjoy a weekend of Westerns, old movies and food. If he became ill he knew Pauline was coming to get her "Thomas" and care for him until she felt he was well enough to return to his home. Oh how special he knew he was! Buck met many people during his travels. He will be missed by all who knew him. Cherishing his memory are: five daughters, Mary Frances, Theresa, lanthony, Virginia and La'Cheryl; one son, Ernest (Stephanie); eleven stepchildren; twenty-four grandchildren, Darian, courtney (Javlien), Beverly, lantha (Gwynn) Yvette, Morris, Marcus (Kim), Lynnell, Pamela, Crystal, Tony, Tray Allen, Tyshica, Symicha, Brittany, davon, DaQwanna, Zaylin, Keisha and Theodore; numerous stepgrandchildren, great-grandchildren too many to name, much love for all; sisters-and brothers-in-law, Bernice (Paul), Pauline (Ronald), Branch Jr. (Arnetha) and Clyde Smith; a special friend Cookie; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Preceding him in death are six sisters, Annie Mae, Katie, Ruth, Virginia, Viola and Mayola, two grandchildren, Trennell and Troy and two great-grandchildren, Jermaine and Cedric.

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection (John5:28-29) to life on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and the promises found in his word the Bible.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful resurrection hope and may you draw closer to the one responsible for it: Jehovah God and his only-begotten son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the Family, Please accept my condolences. May you find comfort in the resurrection hope at John 11: 38-44. Here Jesus demonstrated his love for his friend Lazarus by resurrecting him. This same hope is extended to all mankind. May these verses help to strengthen and encourage you at this times.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

“ May you find much comfort and strength in God's promises of a happy future which are found in the bible. I'm so sorry that your loved one passed away. One of those promises is found at Acts 24:15, which teaches us that there is going to be a resurrection of the dead. Another wonderful promise is found at 2nd Peter 3:13 which lets us know that soon there will be a new world in which righteous conditions will prevail. All who love Jehovah and his son Jesus, and obey their commandments will share in that new paradise world where such things as violence, sickness, and death will be a thing of the past. May you cling to this hope, because Jehovah never fails to fulfill his word. Isaiah 55:11. May your precious memories of Thomas help you to cope in the days ahead.
