

Thomas Manning

March 5, 1955 - July 6, 2005

Thomas Bennett Manning, son of the Nancy Cartwright and the late James Leroy Cartwright departed this life on July 6, 2005. Tommy, as he was affectionately called, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on March 5, 1955. Tommy attended Baltimore City Public Schools and later received his GED. He was also certified as an HVAC technician. Tommy's infectious smile could light up any room. He was an avid reader and loved to watch movies. Tommy also loved reading the Koran and studying Islam. He found great pleasure in caring for his dear mother and helping his sister when ever she needed assistance. He will be deeply missed by all who knew him. Tommy leaves to mourn: one son, Malcolm Manning, Sr.; a grandson, Malcolm Manning, Jr., a loving mother, Nancy Cartwright; two devoted sisters, Jacqueline Fields and Margaret Cartwright, a brother-in-law, Joseph Fields; a daughter-in-law, Tracy; three nephews, Alteron and Durrell Cartwright and Clarence Fields; six aunts, one uncle and a host of relatives and friends. Tommy was preceded in death by his brother James Cartwright, Jr. "Blessed are those that mourn, for they will be comforted" Matthew 5: 4

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Isaiah 25:8,9 where God says that he will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces. It is my hope that you will be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. First Corinthians chapter 15:26 rightly calls death our enemy, that same verse assures us that death will be destroyed. What hope is there for our dead loved ones? Daniel 12:2 says- " And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." Many will wake up to a paradise earth, at that time there will be no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Matthew 5:5, Isaiah 33:24 and Luke 23:43) May these divinely inspired promises give you comfort, strength and peace in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
