

Thomas A. Phipps

September 8, 1954 - August 27, 2013

In the year 1935, in heaven, God was concentrating on sending a gift to the late Rosalee Grant. Every now and then God decides to add a little something extra special to the family of humanity and wraps it up in a little package that we know as a little boy. This little boy was called Thomas Alfred Phipps and on September 8, 1954, he landed from heaven at a place we know as Harlem, New York.

Thomas, who was affectionately known as “Tucker,” was an only child. He was educated in the New York Public School System and graduated from Benjamin Franklin High School in Harlem, New York. Thomas was gainfully employed as a truck driver for the Oriental Trading Company.

In 2000, Thomas relocated to Baltimore, Maryland to embark on a new chapter in his life, but little did he know he would meet his soul mate.

Thomas joined New Refuge Deliverance Cathedral and was baptized in July 2008. On October 4, 2009, Thomas was joined in holy matrimony to his soul mate, Darlene, whom he met at a restaurant in 2002. Thomas was elected to the New Refuge Trustee Board in 2011.

Thomas had many hobbies and past time activities that included: highway driving, spending time with his grandchildren, fishing, fixing things that would never get fixed, cleaning his truck, yard sales with his sister-in-law Tina, and shopping at the flea market every Saturday morning with his granddaughter Kennedy.

Thomas was a kind generous, compassionate person with a loving spirit. He will be remembered for his smile, straight forward approach, humor, and many other qualities. Thomas will be loved and missed by many.

On August 27, 2013, Trustee Phipps had a rendezvous with the Lord. God, in His infinite wisdom called Thomas home after a lengthy illness

Thomas leaves to cherish his memories a devoted wife, Darlene; loving children Andrea Miller, Elvira Young and Joseph Harrington; grandchildren Michael Davis, Kishien Davis, Zaniya Davis, and Kennedy Graves (his road dog); mother-in-law, Mother Mildred Williams; and host of sister-in-laws, brother-in-laws, nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

“ I would like to convey my condolences to the Phipps Family and Friends. May the God of all comfort (2Corinthians1:3-4) continue to sustain you during this difficult time. John5:28-29 and Revelation21:4 tells us of a time when our loved ones will be restored to life in a paradise on earth (Psalms37:29). Until that time, go to God's word the bible for guidance and hope. With deepest sympathy.

“ In this time of great sadness its good to know that the bible provides a happy message. Gods word the bible has good news for families that are grieving. At Acts 24:15 it says that there is going to be a resurrection of the of both the righteous and the unrighteous. That is good news to us because we can have the opportunity to be with our love ones again right here on the earth under better conditions. “ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
