“ To the Spence family; Death is no enemy of man; it is a friend who, when the work of life is done, just cuts the cord that binds the human boat to earth, that it may sail on smoother seas. Grief is natural to thee, and is always about thee; pleasure is a stranger, and visit thee by times; use well thy reason, and sorrow shall be cast behind thee; be prudent and the visits of joy shall remain long with thee. "Peace"
