“ There are no words of sympathy that will erase the pain of losing someone you love, may it bring you some comfort to know that other care about your loss and pain and in time the memories of the one you loss will help you to focus not on your loss, but on the love you shared with that one. Call on the God of all comfort He will listen to you. (2 Corinthians 1: 2-4). Your family has my deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Josephine##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your loved one. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. However, there is a source of comfort for us. God's Word, the Bible assures us that "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort...comforts us in all our tribulation." (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). It also offers us the solution to our source of distress at Acts 24:15 and John 5:28,29. Please read these verses and feel free to contact me to discuss this wonderful provision further.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
