

Thomas McKinley Washington

January 20, 1944 - November 19, 2022

To honor the memory of Thomas McKinley Washington who passed away on Saturday, November 19, 2022, surrounded by his family, we are celebrating his life.

McKinley was the second son born to Joe Washington and Jeneva Johnson on January 20, 1944, in Halifax, North Carolina.

After graduating from Brawley High School, he relocated to Baltimore, Maryland where he met his wife of 55 years, Elinor, affectionately known as Jean. From this union, they had two sons.

McKinley worked at Bethlehem Steel, Sparrows Point, MD. He retired after working there for 35 years.

He enjoyed reading, doing word search puzzles, eating, watching TV, dressing up as a Dapper Dan dresser and talking. Boy, could he talk and talk and talk for hours on the phone, long distance, to family and childhood friends in North Carolina.

McKinley's family was his greatest love. After his wife and sons, he loved all kinds of music. His favorite was jazz. He could listen to jazz for hours. With Jean in tow, he wouldn't miss attending the Hampton Jazz festival yearly.

McKinley is survived by his wife Elinor (Jean); two sons Gregory and Mark; the grandchildren, Ahjee, Shiniya, Mark Jr.; and one great-grandchild Blake, one brother Earl; and preceding him in death his brother, Joseph and sister Evonne.

McKinley will be missed, affectionately remembered and he will always hold a special place in our hearts when family and friends speak his many names:

McKinley, Thomas, Tom, Tan, Mack and O Moe as we share memories of him.
