

Thomasena E. Hester

February 16, 1918 - February 22, 2002

Thomasena Ella Hester, daughter of the late Thomas Capers and Bertha Jefferson, was born on February 26, 1918 in Lee County, South Carolina. She departed this life on February 22, 2002 after a lengthy illness. She received her education in Lee County, South Carolina. In the late 1940's she migrated to Baltimore, Maryland where she became a member of Patterson-Asbury A.M.E. Church. Until her illness, she was an active member of the ushers, gospel chorus and Sunday school. She also served as a deaconess and steward of the church. Thomasena raised three children of her own and six of her grandchildren. She made numerous friends and sacrificed a lot for her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She will be deeply and sincerely missed. She leaves to mourn: two daughters, Josephine Gunn of Elon College, N.C. and Earthalee Maxine Evans of Baltimore, Md.; one sister, Rena Capers of Detroit; sister-in-law, Flossie Capers of Baltimore, Md.; son-in-law, Samuel Gunn of Elon College, N.C.; daughter-in-law, Queen Capers of Baltimore, Md.; eight grandchildren, ten great-grandchildren, a host of nieces and nephew; two dear and devoted friends, Barbara Wilson and Ann Holloman; and several other friends.

“ The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
