

Thomasine Frances Braxton

April 19, 1944 - May 31, 2009

Thomasine Frances Braxton, 65, of Richmond, Virginia made a peaceful transition, in the presence of family, at the Medical College of Virginia on Sunday, May 31, 2009. She was preceded in death by her sister, Alease Geneva Gardner. Thomasine was born to Martha and Thomas Gardner, April 19, 1944 in New Kent County, Va. She attended St. Emma's Catholic Academy in Powhatan, Virginia and later enrolled in Cosmetology school. Her enduring ambition was to become a model. Although that goal was never realized, she maintained the rigorous discipline required of a modeling career. Her appearance was a reflection of the numerous hours she spent applying make-up and conditioning her skin. It would be fair to say that Thomasine would refuse a Krispy Kreme donut for fear she might gain a pound. She also had a great love for animals, music, reading and writing poetry. She wrote one song, that was published. It played on the radio for a short time. Thomasine will be remembered for her telephone calls, cards, words of encouragement and the sweet nicknames she had for her daughter. Thomasine is survived by parents: Martha Christian Gardner and Thomas Gardner; daughter; Noelle Harris (James); three brothers; Charles Moss (Barbara), Andwele-Thomas Gardner (Carolyn) and Alvin Gardner; sister; Patricia Johnson (George); and many other relatives.

“ Death is something that we will never get use to because it is not natural. God's Word at 1Corinthians 15:26 refers to death as 'the last enemy'. What a wonderful day it will be when Almighty God Jehovah by means of his son Christ Jesus brings our enemy to nothing!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from the resurrection hope. And may you draw closer to the ones responsible for that hope: Jehovah God and his only-begotten son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one. We all look forward to the time when Jehovah God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry not pain be anymore (Rev. 21:4). May you find comfort in God and the promises found in his word the Bible because Titus 1:2 assures us that he cannot lie.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ To The Family, I want to express my deepest sympathy for your loss. I also want to share the comfort of John 5:28,29 where we are promised that those who have fallen asleep in death have the hope of receiving a "resurrection" back to life. Life on an earth restored to a beautiful paradise. Psalms 37:11 says, "The meek ones themselves will possess the earth, and they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace." While we await that wonderful time please find comfort in these promises.##imported-begin##Mrs. Jordan##imported-end##
