“ Thornton D. Powell

“ He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord God will wipe away tears from off all faces. Isaiah 25:8

Uncle Thornton had been in poor health for several years. Family and friends had been praying to God to help him. God answered all of our prayers. He is no longer suffering. He has eternal life. My last memory of uncle Thornton, was at the Family Reunion 2011. Talking about the family history and taking pictures in the park. He loved to drive his car.

“ Please accept my deepest condolences on the loss of dear Mr. Powell. The death of a loved one can be very painful, even if their years were many. May you draw much comfort from the wonderful promises found in Gods' Word The Bible. There we read at John 5:28,29, in part,....."do not marvel at this, the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". There is soon to a resurrection of our dead loved ones , back to a cleansed paradise earth. They will be restored to a world of happiness, peace, perfect health and endless life. This is no fantasy. I pray these scriptures bring you enlightenment ,hope, and strengthen your broken hearts until that day that is right around the corner. Sincerely, D. Ward Michigan More Bible-based comfort can be found on the website www.jw.org
