

Thornton Smith

September 26, 1954 - September 5, 2025

THORNTON T. SMITH, SR., son of the late Thelma and Teddy Smith, was born on September 26th, 1954, at Baltimore City Hospital, Baltimore, MD. He departed this world on September 5, 2025.

Terry, as he was known, started his schooling in Japan, but upon returning to the States went to School 122 for elementary, then attended Booker T. Washington for Middle School. He graduated from City High School in 1973 and attended BCCC for a time but did not obtain his degree. He married Faith Alston in 1976, and from that union had 4 children. He served in the Marine Corp in 1978 and was Honorably Discharged not long after.

Terry was very artistic and turned down an offer to work for the United Kingdom of Art to stay with his family and serve his country.

He leaves to mourn four younger siblings, Thelma, Theresa, Tyrone and Timothy; many nieces and nephews; four children, Felicia, Tamara, Thornton Jr. and Theodore; nine grandchildren, Lyric, Dorian, Destiny, J'von, Saiya, Trinity, Hinata and Robert Jr.; and one great-grandchild, Nova.

With his departure, he will be met by his parents, his brother (Tony) and all other family and friends long gone before.
