

Thurman R. Smith

July 30, 1973 - July 18, 2016

Thurman Reginald Smith (Reggie), son of Thurman Smith, Jr and Mary Smith, was born on July 30, 1973 in Baltimore, MD. He departed this life on July 18th after a brief illness.

Reggie was a 1992 graduate of Forest Park High School where he was a member of the football team and afterward spent a brief time at Baltimore City Community College was employed by several companies in the area including Schlumberger Malco, The National Aquarium, Pimlico Race Course and Miller's Delicatessen.

As a youngster, Reggie grew up in the Christian Temple Faith Church under the leadership of Reverend Izell and Elaine S. Crump. Reggie enjoyed basketball, and would have a ball with him at all times, bouncing the ball up and down the block, with his towel over his shoulder. Reggie never lost his enjoyment of all sports but never picked up on NASCAR like his dad and older brother. Reggie took enjoyment in entertaining his two nephews by teasing and arguing about sports and certain players, taking them to the movies, shopping, and WWE wrestling on his bed. Reggie will be remembered for his smooth, slow stride, his sarcasm, jokes and making folks laugh, especially at themselves. Unfortunately, when he became ill, his dietary regimen severely changed. The new joke was that he would constantly request a corned beef sandwich from Miller's which made his mom extremely nervous. Prayfully, He is enjoying his sandwich now!

Reggie leaves to cherish his memories: his father and mother Thurman Smith Jr. and Mary Smith of Baltimore, MD. Three brothers; Larry D. Jones of Tarboro, NC, Anthony Jones of Butner, NC, and Rodney Smith (Deborah) of Albany, NY. Two sisters; Bernadette Boyd of North Charleston, SC, and Phyllis Flowers of Tarboro, NC. One grandmother; Dora Smith of Oxon Hill, MD. A special friend; Eric Conaway of Baltimore, MD and a goddaughter. Six uncles, seven aunts, and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, other relatives and friends.
