

Tia Jackson Pitt

December 1, 1964 - February 7, 2011

TIA MARGUARTIE CELINE JACKSON, was sent special delivery to Marlene and William Jackson, Sr. on December 1, 1964. "TeeTee", as she was well known to her family and friends, was returned to her sender on February 7, 2011 at 4:00 a.m. after a lengthy and losing battle with breast cancer. Tia received her education at the Park Heights Street Academy and Northwestern Senior High School in Baltimore, Maryland.

Tia had a very outgoing personality and was very out-spoken. She had an air of grace about her that just stood out wherever she was and in whatever she was doing. All that knew her, know she was loving, dainty, sophisticated and particular about most everything. She had a passion about being a good mother, daughter, sister and friend.

She was baptized in 1970 at St. Joseph's Monastery Catholic Church, then later along with her family, joined St. Bernadine's Roman Catholic Church.

Later, Tia relocated to North Carolina to be near her mother and was employed by Skills Creations and Consolidated Diesel. After meeting her late husband, Otis Pitt, Sr., she relocated to Upper Marlboro, Maryland, where in 1995 they were married.

She was preceded in death by one sister, Martina Starke and beloved husband, Otis Pitt, Sr. Tia leaves to cherish her memory, her two precious jewels, her daughter and princess, Ketia Johnson and her son and prince, Justine Pitt, her loving mother, Marlene Greene of Columbia, MD; father, William Jackson, Sr. of Tacoma, WA; loyal brother, William Jackson, Jr. of Fort Dix, NJ; one dedicated and loving sister, Deneen Whetstone; three younger brothers, Nicholas Jackson of Raleigh, NC, Christopher and Matthew Jackson of Tacoma, WA; brother –in-law, Clayton Whetsstone; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
