

Tierell Maurice Wilder

February 12, 1991 - April 24, 2015

Tierell Wilder was born to Sherice Denise Wilder and Eric Sims and loving father Lawrence Wilson Jr. on February 12 1991 at John Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore Maryland.

He departed this life on April 24, 2015. Tierell received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Graduating at the age of 18, at Carver Vocational Technical High School where he received a certificate in Masonry-Brick Laying.

Tierell had a passion for sports especially basketball, which he played while attending Carver.

Tierell was a hard worker, and dedicated goal seeking individual. He was a jack of all trades, succeeding, and concurring anything he put his mind to. One of his occupations he especially enjoyed was the three years he spent working for the company Lady Foot Locker. Tierell had a steadfast mind, allowing him to succeed in any and everything he set his mind to. He enjoyed shopping for clothes, shoes, and cars and he also had a little thing for the ladies. Tierell also liked joking around and playing video games too.

Tierell Wilder and Donna Cooper conceived a little star named Ty'onna Naomi Wilder which he loved and cherished very much. He would do anything in his power to make sure she didn't want for nothing. He also loved spending time, taking pictures and going places with his little girl. Tierell had a very special bond with his younger brother Lawrence Wilson which he loved very much he would have given him the world if he could. However, as time went on and Lawrence grew up and got taller, Tierell knew then that there was no little brother, Now it was“(My Son)”,as Tierell would say. Lawrence looked up to his brother and loved him so much. Tierell also had brothers (Eric and Derrick) Sisters (Kiericka , Tiericka , Neyonna) whom he loved also. Tierell also leaves behind the relationships he had with his Grandparents (Gladys M. Wilder , Edna Spearman and Aleta Harrison) he shared special times with them rather was if it was eating Sunday dinner, having conversations and enjoying each other company .

Tierell memory will forever live on in our hearts, for he was a very charming fashionable and loving person. He leaves to celebrate his life: His mother Sherice D. “ My deepest condolences goes out to the family and friends of Tierell. Death is a sting and it is unnatural because God put eternity in our hearts according to Ecc 3:11. Humans were originally created to live forever but unfortunately we list or because of the soon of our first human parents Adam and Eve. All is not lost for your dear loved one because the God's word the Bible gives us hope as brought out in Rev 21:3,4. We all look forward to the promise brought out in the scriptures where it tells us that sickness, death, sorrow and pain will be done away with. May the fond memories of Tierell ease some of the pain an God's promise of a resurrection.
