

Tillman Adams, Jr.

October 26, 1935 - September 5, 2013

All praise to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is our merciful Father and the source of all comfort. He comforts us in all our troubles so that we can comfort others. When they are troubled, we will be able to give them the same comfort God has given us

2 Corinthians 1:3-4

Tillman (Junnie) Adams departed this life on Wednesday, September 5, 2013 at his home in Richmond, Virginia. He was born October 26, 1935 to the late Guy and Margaret Adams in Greenville, Virginia.

Reared as a Christian, he joined Rocky Mount Baptist Church where he was baptized at an early age. He attended Greenville County Public Schools and worked as a laborer on the family farm. As a young adult, he moved to Richmond, Virginia where he was employed at the Richmond Engineering Company (RECO) for over thirty years. After retirement, he worked as a carrier for the Richmond Times Dispatch until 2010.

In 1998, he attended the International Seminary School where he received a Diploma of Practical Theology. Additional, for over twenty years, he was an active member of the Greater Nazarene Baptist Church in Hanover, Virginia and sang in the choir until he could no longer meet the physical demands.

Howeve, his enthusiasm for God continued and his beloved church family worshipped in his home. Although his illness became intrusive and often hindered his ability to perform physical chores, he instinctively comforted others with his infectious “smile”.

He leaves to cherish his memories of love a devoted wife, Gladys Adams; on sister, Gladys Cain(Robert);five children,Lezena Pollard-Flippen(Ollie),Tillman Adams,Jr.,Tammy Adams,Zorana Richardson (Bruce),and Terrance Adams; devoted grandchildren. Michael Pollard, Ashley Adams, Sean Richardson, Alex Adams, Eva Adams, Asia Pannell,Terrance Pannell,a host of other grandchildren, great grandchildren,nieces,nephews,cousins,and friends

“ My condolences go out to the family of Mr Tillman Adams Jr. This must be a difficult time for you, understanding that someone that you loved passed away. God has provided us with a comforting promise and it involves us seeing our loved ones again. Revelation 21:4 says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

“ I am sorry to hear about your loss. However in this time of great sorry and grief its good to know that the bible holds out a happy hope for the future. At psalms 37:29 it tells us that the righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will live forever on it. That is indeed good news! At Acts 24:15 it states that there is going to be a resurrection of our love ones right here to the earth. The wonderful hope that the bible holds out is that we have the opportunity to be with our loves ones again on a paradise earth forever! What a loving God to provide such a wonderful promise. If you would like to hear more details on how you and your family can enjoy these promises you can contact me at ginrockwild@yahoo.com

Sister Gladys and the Adams family,

It is with my sincerest and deepest sympathy extended to you in the passing of Brother Adams.

Please find comfort in the promises of God. Psalm 116:15 reveals God's love, provision and ultimate care for His children who pass from this life to eternal life. It is written, "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints".

*My prayers and love are with you,
