TE

“ (T-Money) "FRIEND" I just found out last Thursday that you were gone and when I say I sighed so hard at work when I got the text. I just didn't want to believe and I still can't. We met back in 2003 and worked together at HCA/Boulders for numerous years. We clicked instantly and you made me laugh everyday even outside of work as we talked often on the phone about life. You always gave the best advice and would always be a call away if I ever needed to vent. I could always confide in you and you always kept it real whether I wanted to hear it or not. I remember the times when I would have to come and wake you up at your desk because you said the fried chicken made you sleepy (LOL). You kept that bottle of hot sauce at your desk. You would always say that I be (WILDIN OUT) as we would talk about any and everything that would bring us both to tears. We laughed so much it's a wonder we didn't pass out. You were a true gentleman to all of us at work always opening doors for us and making sure we were all good. You stayed swaged out on the regular. I retired the gift you gave me and Tasha several years ago (BOL) and it did help me get through that rough patch at the time. (ha-ha). You told me you had moved out to Charles City with your lady and that you really liked it out there the peace. You mentioned you had your own transportation service and which I was proud to hear as you were always business minded. You spoke of your lady often and how she was so good to you. Oh and our song was (I'm sprung) by T-Pain... lol!!! You remember we were jamming to it at Nikki's birthday party years ago; that was the first time you introduced me to your brother (Wayne/AKA/Buttnaked) your for sure twin.. We had a good time that night!!!! Our last conversation was about my daughter (Jada) and guess what??? just like you said she would get tired and that I needed to let her go through the changes as she would learn. Jada is out of that situation and is going much better!! Lastly we had talked about getting the (HCA) gang together to chat and have drinks but never got around to it. The busyness of life didn't allow and that I regret as we need to slow down for those who are dear to us. I will miss you FRIEND!!!!!!!!!!!! Love you Fam!! Prayers out to your Entire Family/Friends. My deepest "Condolences" to you all.

SR

With deepest regards, Sean and Sharika offer our condolences Tee. Though we did not have the privilege of knowing him personally, we recognize the impact their life had on those around them. Our thoughts are with their family and friends during this difficult time. May they find comfort in the memories shared and the legacy left behind
