“ I met Timothy when my son Justin stated dating his sister (now wife) Tamar. The Christmas family welcome us with open arms and warm smiles including Timothy. What a joy it was to know him and have him being a part of their family. Rest now and be at peace. May your journey to your final resting place be filled with a peaceful calm.

“ I have known Timothy ever since he was born. My two sons shared many Sabbath days with Timothy. Timothy had the a smile that could brighten up the universe. Will, Cory, and Timothy loved going to Williamsburg with my parents. His smile, his seemingly shy smile, was always there no matter how challenging things became. I will miss Timothy and the joy he shared with all of us. Gone too soon. Till we meet again on the other side of Jordan.

“ Best Friend, you were a true blessing to Know and Love. You have touched many souls through laughter and photography. You have brightened many of my darkest days and your goddaughter and I will always cherish all of our memories. You are stuck with me forever, especially since I carry my name you have given me over 20 years ago. You fought a long, hard fight. I Love You! No more pain and you have definitely got your wings, my Angel. Until we meet again...

“ Timothy captured some of our most beautiful moments on camera and in person. His laugh and personality was so distinct that it cannot be compared to anyone else. Tim we love you and we miss you. Your humbleness through these past 8 years will forever be etched in my heart. To Tamar, your gift of life to him will forever be etched in my heart. Rest easy and thanks for keeping us smiling at our sweetest memories of you.
