

Timothy R. Ellison

February 24, 1957 - January 14, 2019

TIMOTHY ROBERT ELLISON, son of Hilda Ellison and the late Henry T. Ellison, was born on February 24, 1957 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life unexpectedly at St. Agnes Hospital on January 14 2019 with his family by his side.

Timothy, often called "Slim" and later "Big Tim," received his education in Baltimore City Public School System. He loved basketball and was a force on the basketball court and according to him "something to be reckoned with." He was recruited to play at CCBC, where he played for two years. Sports were his thing. There were not many sporting events he would not watch. The Baltimore Ravens was his team and he loved watching tennis. Timothy was also a history buff and would watch the history channel all day. He could tell you about his favorite era, WWII.

You could make him out of the crowd due to his 6'7" presence. However, he was known for his sense of humor and life of the party persona. He was known as "the greatest dancer." He loved having a great time with family and friends, but you had to be prepared for the friendly Timothy banter that came with "the greatest dancer." When he wasn't shouting "wooooooo" in getting prepared for a Ravens football game on Sundays, he would watch his kids play in coed basketball league. He enjoyed coaching AAU basketball and attending high school games. He was a mentor to a lot of kids, especially the ones that reminded him of himself in his younger days. He did not ever have to command respect, he simply earned it.

Timothy worked at many jobs, but the two that were most rewarding and special to him was The ARC OF BALTIMORE and part-time with The City of Baltimore as a crossing guard. He loved working with kids and clients with special needs.

Timothy leaves to cherish his memory for eternity: his soul mate and the love of his life, Francine Kane; two daughters, Shea Ellison and Jennifer Chester; three sons, Michael Ellison, Brian Ellison, and Timothy R. Ellison Jr.; sisters, Maarcelena Moore, Cheyenne Burts and husband Stanley, Vickie Whitehead and husband James, Rosie Spriggs and husband John, late sister, Annette Ellison; brothers, Joseph Daniels, Darryl H. Ellison and wife Shanyce and late brother, Eugene Washington; three grandkids, oldest Bryanna Fisher. He also leaves behind a plethora of nieces, nephews, cousins, neighborhood kids, friends, co-workers, family and his long time best friend Jule Perry.

“ Mr. Timothy Ellison, a man of courage, strength and wisdom. As I write this note, my heart is heavy and my eyes fill with tears. I look back on meeting Mr. Ellison for the first time and the great impression he made and maintained, in my eyes. Mr. Ellison was a man that did not fear standing on what he believed. He instilled great values in his children and it was evident that he loved everyone.

The model parent...you could always count on Mr. Ellison to be on top of his children to be sure that they were productive citizens. He would always be ahead of the teachers. He did not wait for situations to occur, he was a proactive parent and he was very much appreciated.

My prayers are with the family as you walk this part of the journey. To the children, remember the values that your parents instilled in you and teach them to your children. Your father will always be a part of you.

God bless you!

*Lovingly submitted,

“ I worked as Tim's supervisor for years, he was a great guy. He was funny, respectful and did the work required. Not only was I his supervisor we were friends. Tim spoke his mind and I respected him for that, he will be missed. May GOD comfort and embrace his family and ease their heavy hearts. Thank you God for receiving Tim to your Kingdom and God Bless his family
