

Timothy J. Custis

October 10, 1958 - August 28, 2002

Timothy Jerome Custis, son of Betty L. Locklear and the late William F. Custis was born on October 10, 1958 in Baltimore, Maryland. Timmy, as he was affectionately called, attended Hampstead Hill Junior High School. He had many interests, on being his love for children, and was endeared by his many nieces and nephews. He enjoyed sports and loved watching movies and attending cultural arts events. He worked as a laborer, and before his illness he was a very hard worker. He leaves to mourn: his special lady, Deborah McAllister and his one daughter, Deborah; three sisters, Margaret, Linda and Diane and one brother, Edward; a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends. He will be truly missed.

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
