“ Sighing...It has been 7 years now since you've been gone. However, it seems like just yesterday. We miss you so much. Speaking of yesterday. T.J. cried because he misses you so much. And Shanika, your baby-girl has had her moments as well. Chris and Zania has not been the same either. We know you did not leave us because you wanted to. It was not up to you or me. God knew it was your time. You were tired. Sometimes I get tired too. But I still have a few more things to do. Sometimes I try to imagine what you would look like now...probably the same. You would be surprised to know how my life has changed. LONELINESS came in and ripped me into pieces. It became my worse enemy. Where has the time gone? minutes turned into hours; hours turned to days; day turned to months; and yes, months has turned into years. They say the dead knows not what the living is doing; but I wonder if you know. I wonder if you see and hear the things we do or say from day to day. I wonder if you know what this world has turned into. I wonder if you know how hard it has been without you. I wonder if you know how long it has been since I heard your voice or felt your touch. I wonder if you know about Taylor, Taraji, Kahmel or little Timothy. I wonder if you know that you passed on Kay's birthday. She misses you so much. I wonder if you know about James. I wonder if you know that if he could he would only give me up to be again with you. I wonder if you know that mom passed too. I wonder if you and she are together, I wonder if you were there to welcome her in. I wonder if she told you not to worry about me now. I wonder if she told you that I was OK. I wonder if you know that your sisters, brother, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends miss you too. I wonder if you know that we will never forget you. I wonder if you know...I just wonder!

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ May Jehovah God comfort you in all your sorrow. I know how hard it must be for the family to deal with this. Death is so hard to come to grips with. No matter how many we lose, we never get used to it. Death was never a part of God's purpose for mankind. That is why 1st Crinthians 15,26 calls death our enemy, but it adds that death will be brought to nothing. Also Isaiah 25,8 tells us that Jehovah will swallow up death forever. After which many will be brought back to life according to Acts 24,15, and John 5,28,29. May the hope of being reunited with Timothy give some comfort to you, and may precious memories that you made with him over the years help you to cope with his loss, until the glorious day when he opens his eyes again in paradise.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Dear family, may you find much solace in the scriptures as the years go by without your loved one. Time is a healer, and each day that passes makes it a little easier to bear, although we miss them so very much. But try to remember that death is only temporary, and by means of a resurrection you will see Timothy again. One day soon all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and come out to an opportunity of eternal life in happy conditions. May that thought help carry you through, and know that Jehovah is the God of Love. 1st John 4,8###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end##
