

Tioshea Handy

June 8, 1982 - June 9, 2004

Tioshea A. Handy, son of Veronica Handy-Myers and Frank Whitmore, was born on June 8, 1982 in Baltimore, Maryland. On June 9, 2004, God decided to pick a Rose for his garden. "Tio or Crudy-Yo" as he was fondly called by his family and friends will be deeply missed. He was a joy to be around. He always had a good joke, that would bring a smile to your face, but nothing could top that beautiful smile, he seemed to always carry with him. Tio received his education through the Baltimore City Public Schools. He leaves to mourn and cherish his memory, his mother, Veronica, father, Frank; his stepdaughter, Mekala; two sisters, Renikker and Alicia; three brothers, Arnilo, Richard and Alex; one brother-in-law, Maso; five nieces, four nephews, one great niece, many aunts and uncles, two godmothers, Margaret and Stephanie, one godsister, Janell, one godbrother, Ronald and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My condolences on the loss of your son. I Corinthians chapter 15 verse 26 calls death an "enemy" that will be "destroyed". Isaiah 26:19 promises- "Your dead ones will live...They will rise up." It is my hope that these loving promises from our Heavenly Father will give you added strength in the days ahead.##imported-begin##S. Hill##imported-end##

“ Patty this is real crazy for as old as I am I still sit back and think what a good life we really had on Cliftview regardless of our ups and downs. I remember when tio was born and although I will miss him he's in better hands. I bet if he could choose to come back he doesn't want to just know when you think about him and that smile comes across your face he is right there. A year has almost past. I know sometimes it don't feel easy, but eventually it will##imported-begin##Tasha##imported-end##
